

ABSTRACT

Devices, softwares and methods advance the scheduling of a next contention 5 session upon premature termination of a contention free session. A Hybrid Coordinator detects when the exchange of wireless transmissions finishes before the contention free window is scheduled to end. Upon such detection, the Hybrid Coordinator transmits a notification to advance the scheduling of the next contention session. Upon sensing the notification, contention resumes by the participating 10 peripherals.

Patent Application No. 8371-143